

OCYL: Expanding your child's opportunities to learn and achieve with year-round civic engagement and education programs.

NEW SPRING PROGRAMS for 3 & 4 Year Olds!

Literacy PREP offers 3 year olds basic pre-reading and writing skills in a fun, interactive class. Three year olds are welcome to attend if they are able to use the bathroom independently and are comfortable separating when dropped off. The class will be taught by a certified RI teacher with a Master's Degree in Early Childhood Literacy. Class is limited to 8 students.

6 Weeks (12 classes) Tuesday and Thursday 9-11 AM Class begins March 6th.
Register by February 21, 2012. $115 per student. (less than $5 per hour!)

Preschool Art offers 3 and 4 year olds time to make open ended and tactile art in the "Outside the Lines" class along with a parent or caregiver. The class is led by a very creative local teacher with a Master's Degree in Teaching. Play clothes required!

5 Friday classes 9:45- 10:30 AM
Class begins March 2nd.

Register by February 17, 2012. $35 per student.

Space is very limited. Register beginning 2/9/12.
Cumberland kids who qualify for free/reduced lunch attend for free!
Additional financial aid is available.

www.ocyl.org

Download and print registration and the financial aid form from the web or pick them up at OCYL anytime in the foyer. Mail or drop off with your SNAP or Free Lunch Approval form to:

OCYL: The Office of Children, Youth & Learning
1464 Diamond Hill Rd., Suite 2
Cumberland, RI 02864
401-475-0929
info@ocyl.org

Check website
for FREE
FEBRUARY
VACATION
PROGRAMS!

Find the OCYL entrance on the Monastery ground on Diamond Hill Road past the service entrance at the Cumberland Public Library.

